ATR VERDICT: Slow starts are included as part of the package with BROSAY, but his talent has been on the rise and he boasts highly persuasive claims. Having shown ground versatility with recent victories at Windsor and Ascot, the son of Tasleet simply gave himself too much to do when fourth back at the later venue three weeks ago. That was still a solid effort and he again is a key player. His old rival Jubilee Walk is feared with cheekpieces added. Strike Red, Eye Of Dubai and Fine Interview also command respect.

ATR VERDICT: Alnilam beat Country Mile by over three lengths on his chasing bow at Uttoxeter, making every yard of the running, and Olly Murphy's charge can confirm that form to go close. However, KING OF KINGSFIELD struck in Grade 3 company at Punchestown on his most recent start and sets the standard. Gordon Elliott's seven-year-old has finished in the places at the top level over the smaller obstacles and could be a class above.

ATR VERDICT: Arbaawy has obvious claims and should be capable of exploiting any weakness shown by his less-experienced opponents. However, there is a lot to like about the profile of INFRAAD, who is closely related to the Group 1 winner Nezwaah. Starting out over a mile shouldn't be an issue for William Haggas' newcomer, who is suggested as the first one to consider. Affettuoso and Golden Story are other well-bred colts to keep a close eye on in the betting.

ATR VERDICT: Those with experience look beatable and it may pay to focus on the newcomers. HARPER VIOLET, who is from the same family as the high-class Inisherin, is suggested as the most appealing option. However, Hollywell Stream, whose price rose from 95,000gns as a foal to 280,000gns as a yearling, is another must for a betting check. The stable companions, Lilt and Venetian Sky, help William Haggas play an intriguing hand.

ATR VERDICT: The Twiston-Davies team enjoyed plenty of success in the El Rincon colours last term and they could have another smart novice on their hands in the shape of UN SENS A LA VIE. An impressive winner on his hurdles bow at Market Rasen, he is likely to have plenty more to come and is narrowly preferred to Fortune De Mer, a Listed bumper winner here who is bound to improve for his placed effort at Uttoxeter. Four from six in this sphere and not beaten far on his return at Market Rasen, Sir Galahad completes the shortlist with Irish raider Jackson Lamb.

ATR VERDICT: Having found further improvement on the step up in distance at Goodwood, DAY OF GRACE makes grand appeal in her bid to complete a three-timer. William Haggas' filly scored with plenty in the tank and a 6lb penalty is unlikely to halt her progression. Princess Rascal was well found in the market when landing a class 2 event at Newmarket and is feared most, ahead of another hat-trick seeker in Concert Party.

Top Tip: DAY OF GRACE (7)

Watch out for: PRINCESS RASCAL (2)
