ATR VERDICT: A step up to this trip has really brought out the best from MUY MUY LOCO, who recorded a second C&D success earlier this month. Simon Dow's charge is in a little deeper today but a 4lb rise looks fair and he is expected to continue his affinity with this track and trip. Beta Reader went down by a narrow margin last time and is of obvious interest, whilst Seventy could be dangerous if coping with an ease in distance.

Top Tip: MUY MUY LOCO (10)

Watch out for: BETA READER (8)

ATR VERDICT: Many of these arrive in excellent form, so only a tentative vote can go to the Stuart Williams-trained HENRYTHENATE. The son of Mayson has really turned a corner since changing hands last month, winning comfortably over 5f here on two occasions, and a further 8lb hike might not stop the progressive three-year-old. Fellow hat-trick seeker Mr Juggles should be a threat, as should Lord Harcourt, whilst Saffron Dandy, Star Of Albion and Horace Wallace are others to consider.

Top Tip: HENRYTHENATE (5)
Watch out for: MR JUGGLES (6)

ATR VERDICT: Gary & Josh Moore won last year's corresponding race with a similar type to LOVE YOU BACK. Having raced keenly on his hurdles debut at Warwick when last seen, a more accomplished performance can be expected from the Moores' representative this time. Ettore was a modest performer on the Flat but is in the right hands to make progress now he has switched codes, although Innamorato has more experience and is likely to be a bigger danger if he copes with a 6lb penalty for his win at Taunton.

Top Tip: LOVE YOU BACK (6)

Watch out for: INNAMORATO (1)
