6 (2)		9343-45	SKUKUZA 17 C b h Blue Point - Shingwedzi	5 9 - 2	R L Moore E A L Dunlop	111

ATR VERDICT: Persica won this last year and is bound to make a bold bid again, but it's hard to get away from DAMYSUS. The Gosdens' colt took a step forward when landing the Darley Stakes over track and trip in October and is definitely going in the right direction. The son of Frankel could prove too good for these on his return to action before a possible tilt at the Lockinge. Boiling Point and Skukuza are both bang there on official ratings and neither can be ruled out.

Top Tip: DAMYSUS (1)

Watch out for: PERSICA (4)

ATR VERDICT: Air Force One posted some good efforts in decent sprints in 2025 and is one to monitor closely in the betting. However, he's 10lb above his last winning mark and a tendency to start slowly dampens the enthusiasm. VENTURE CAPITAL is an old rival of the Geoff Oldroyd-trained gelding and could be a more significant player if first-time blinkers reignite his fire. Corolla Point, who is unbeaten since joining Ed Bethell, and Smart Vision are also considered.

Top Tip: VENTURE CAPITAL (6)

Watch out for: AIR FORCE ONE (3)

ATR VERDICT: ANNIVERSARY has fresher legs than his elder rivals and could be hard to contain. The son of Sea The Moon has plenty of scope to progress as a stayer and can make the most of a drop in class. Sax Appeal, who made all to win over C&D last summer, should make this a good test for the selection, while Charging Thunder has fewer questions to answer than the other two and is the best of the rest.

Top Tip: ANNIVERSARY (3)

Watch out for: SAX APPEAL (4)

9 (2)		5048/0	YOUR OUT OF LINE 31 g g Alhebayeb - Wichita Line	5 10 - 4	Millie Barcoe J Barcoe	55

ATR VERDICT: John Gleeson looks to have strong claims of landing this prize on ZIPSTER. Mid-division in a big field at the Curragh on his reappearance, the Gerard O'Leary-trained five-year-old took a significant step forward when third at Gowran Park. A winner off this mark at Killarney last summer, the son of Zoustar looks well handicapped at present. Star Mind, representing the same connections, could well prove the biggest danger. Successful at Naas off 5lb higher last season, she has shaped with promise at Dundalk in recent starts and it would be no surprise to see her improve further. Teffian Warrior needs to find more but is lightly raced and has the services of Alan O'Sullivan.

Top Tip: ZIPSTER (1)

Watch out for: STAR MIND (8)

ATR VERDICT: Lyrical Song was knocking on the door at the end of last year's campaign and must enter calculations on his return to action. However, stall 12 does Tim Easterby's gelding very few favours and SANDY CRAIC, who was second to a much higher-rated opponent on her most recent start, is slightly more compelling from a handier draw. Stay Salty was third in a tight Kempton finish, while handicap debutant Cosmic Man is also worth bearing in mind.

Top Tip: SANDY CRAIC (4)

ATR VERDICT: Having ended last year's campaign with a good second at Thirsk, Catton Lady will prove a live threat if returning in a similar vein of form. The five-year-old isn't taken lightly, but a race-fit HOLLY MIST is the most solid proposition. Roger Varian's filly arrives on the back of a third-placed handicap bow at Southwell and reverting to turf holds no fear. Wondrous Light is the pick of the remainder.

Top Tip: HOLLY MIST (1)

ATR VERDICT: Love A Giggle changed hands for 130,000gns as a yearling and her dam won on her introduction so she warrants a market check. Pershaada is likely to build on her third at Wolverhampton and is considered, but the vote goes to BILL THE BULL. The son of Coulsty showed plenty of pace before weakening into fourth in the Brocklesby at Doncaster and with any amount of improvement to come, he looks the one to beat.

ATR VERDICT: ARTH'S GOLD did little wrong when collared in the closing stages at Southwell recently and compensation could be on the cards. Richard Hannon's colt makes plenty of appeal off an unchanged mark and he gets the nod over Havachoc, who has posted a string of creditable efforts in defeat since completing an all-weather hat-trick and another good account is forecast. Highfield Comrade is the pick of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: Bang On The Bell returned to form when finishing a close third at Nottingham last week and should remain competitive. Similar comments apply to Invitorio after his second at Catterick on the same day, but the one who appeals most is IRISH DANCER. Declan Carroll's dual C&D winner has found only one too good over track and trip the last twice and can capitalise on an unchanged mark.

ATR VERDICT: Mio Amico hasn't finished outside the top three in any of his last four outings over a variety of trips and is likely to be thereabouts again. Betelgeuse is a player based on his C&D success two starts ago, but SHIPSHAPE was only beaten two lengths into second at Wolverhampton recently and goes off an unchanged rating. ATR VERDICT: GOLDINTHESEA was an easy winner at Dundalk on the second of his two starts for Joseph O'Brien and could be hard to beat if picking up where he left off in January. Penny Time, who was first past the post in both of his previous appearances (disqualified for incorrect weight on debut), and Wolverhampton winner Sassicaia join the selection in carrying 7lb penalties and are logical threats. Shadow Boxer and Harmonics are notable newcomers.

Top Tip: GOLDINTHESEA (1)

Watch out for: PENNY TIME (2)

Long Handicap: Embarked 8 - 8

ATR VERDICT: DANCING WITH DRUMS didn't get a clear run when the money was down at Wolverhampton last week and having won his two previous starts in a game manner, the son of Kodiak could be worth another chance off the same mark. Orbital Chime and Call Glory have been knocking on the door lately and are strong contenders. English Lady is unexposed on Tapeta and could offer some each-way value.

Top Tip: DANCING WITH DRUMS (10)

7 (7)		431-6	BECKON 88 BF ch f Ulysses - Phillimore	3 8 - 10	Jack Doughty Harry Charlton	67

ATR VERDICT: Rogue Citation showed signs of temperament, but it didn't prevent her from winning over 6f here. That was only her second start and a mark of 73 appears competitive for her handicap debut. However, VENCEDORA looked more accomplished when she made all at Newcastle on the second of her two appearances last year and should have more to offer now resuming over this likely suitable longer trip. The more exposed Cool Molly is the pick of the rest.

Top Tip: VENCEDORA (4)

Watch out for: ROGUE CITATION (5)

8 (6)		23221-	ZIGHY (IRE) 158 D b f Mehmas - Edelline	3 9 - 1	Jack Callan (5) G Boughey	76

ATR VERDICT: Barefoot Beach thumped a decent field on her racecourse bow at Kempton before finding one too strong under a penalty over the same track and trip. An opening mark of 84 doesn't look insurmountable, although SEVEN FIRES might prove better treated. On target at Newcastle before following up over 5f here, she ought to benefit from a return to 6f and is only 11lb higher. Zighy was costly to follow as a juvenile, but she did win at Wolverhampton in November and might make up into a better three-year-old.

Top Tip: SEVEN FIRES (5)

Watch out for: BAREFOOT BEACH (3)
