ATR VERDICT: WARRIORS WOOD returns to hurdling after three admirable performances this term. Brian Hayes' mount is 8lb lower over hurdles than fences and should appreciate the step up in trip. His latest run behind Ol Man Dingle is a strong piece of form. My Gaffer won at Clonmel two starts ago off 6lb lower, but with Michael Keneally taking over the steering, the previous course winner could be capable off this mark. Jacovec Cavern is a consistent performer, although difficult to win with, and it appears the handicapper may now have his measure after a runaway victory at the Punchestown Festival. Both Elusive Oggie and Hees Dynamite seem favourably treated off light weights, so the market is worth watching due to their local connections.

5 (5)		8	WHISKEY GALORE 16 b c Sergei Prokofiev - Tropicana Bay	2 9 - 7	Ross Coakley M L W Bell	-

ATR VERDICT: TAWAKAL, who boasts an entry in the Gimcrack at York next month, is an attractively-bred colt that is hard to ignore. Having cost 36,000 euros as a yearling, the son of Starspangledbanner's price tag rose to 325,000 euros at a breeze-up purchase in May. Obviously an eye-catching mover, this could be an ideal starting point. Gold Reef City, Supreme Star and Whiskey Galore are entitled to be wiser for their debut runs, but Halloween Jack is bred for speed and could be a bigger danger on his racecourse bow.

Top Tip: TAWAKAL (4)

Long Handicap: Oceanides 8 - 2

ATR VERDICT: MERRIJIG might be the oldest horse in the race, but he is also the one with the most convincing recent form and is a strong contender running off 5lb below his last winning mark on turf. The well-handicapped Simiyann is feared the most given he is 10lb lower in the handicap than the last time he was successful, while Regally Blonde commands respect as a previous course winner who is dangerous to underestimate.

Top Tip: MERRIJIG (2)

ATR VERDICT: Show Me Gold sprung a 18/1 surprise to make a winning handicap debut at Kempton on her latest outing and should mount a bold bid in her attempt to follow up, but the one who appeals most is PICKERSGILL. Iain Jardine's filly finished two lengths clear of the third when second at Southwell earlier this month and with Jack Nicholls claiming a handy 5lb, she ought to go close. Court Of Stars is far from out of this either.

12 (10)		105	UNDERDOG 14 b c Perfect Power - Excelette	2 9 - 2	Saffie Osborne R Spencer	88

ATR VERDICT: SOCIAL SYMBOL made a winning debut at Ripon and then outran odds of 33/1 to be beaten four lengths into fourth in the Norfolk Stakes at Royal Ascot. That form is the strongest on offer and Ryan Moore gets the ride, so he's got plenty going for him. Nabati also won on debut at Yarmouth and could be anything for leading connections, while A Bear Affair will be out to put his experience to good use.

ATR VERDICT: First-time blinkers (retained) sparked marked improvement in Chapter, who returned to winning ways at Sandown last month, and he is one to take seriously. However, GO RIMBAUD ran below market expectations when only fifth at Haydock in April, but he has been gelded since and this slight step up in distance could unlock improvement. On The Inlet can beat Brocklesby Bill home for third.

Top Tip: GO RIMBAUD (2)
