ATR VERDICT: PEACE BELLE was deemed good enough for a Grade 2 bumper at Aintree earlier in the year and has made an encouraging start to life on the level. She has improved between runs and is worth another chance, although this won't be easy because Time Thief was quite taking when making his Yarmouth debut a winning one. Why Not Me also boasts sound claims.

ATR VERDICT: Everyoneknowsadave won over 1m2f at Nottingham last month and is a dual course winner to take seriously, but the vote goes to PACE ATTACK. The son of Australia was far from disgraced in fourth at Wolverhampton on his return from a break earlier this month and is likely to have more to come on just his second handicap appearance. Faeberon is another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: Kodical took the silver medal home over an extended 5f at Bath on his penultimate start and a reproduction of that effort would see him go close. However, a chance can be taken on newcomer FLAG OF NATIONS, who changed hands for 35,000gns as a yearling and is related to a few winners. Perola sets the standard with an official rating of 71 and isn't out of this either.

ATR VERDICT: NOT MY TYPE has looked every inch a Pattern race performer in the making judged on a ready debut success at Sandown and then a dominant all-the-way Beverley triumph. There could be more to come from William Haggas' charge and she's preferred to Rogue Jewel, who boasts a similar profile and a C&D win. Pure Mint also looked smart when scoring at this track and is another to take seriously.

ATR VERDICT: IZZARI gets just a tentative vote in a trappy handicap for punters to solve. He left a moderate Newcastle performance behind when claiming second at Carlisle latest and, if building on that effort, he should be in the thick of things. Aim For The Bull has been in good form on the turf and is a previous course scorer, so is noted along with Volto Di Medusa.

ATR VERDICT: A chance is taken ESCAPE MAGIC handles any cut in the ground. Owen Burrows' unexposed filly failed to see out a mile at Salisbury last time, but she included a C&D success in an earlier winning double and has plenty of scope for further improvement. It was soft going when Prince Ali scored over a mile here in June and the veteran could make his presence felt, while Ajrad has won three times here and is potentially well treated if back on song.

ATR VERDICT: Spoken Truth has been thereabouts in decent handicaps of late and is not one to take lightly off his current mark, but FIREFALL could prove the one to side with. The half-brother to a Group 2 winner had just the four starts for Andre Fabre in France, culminating with a close second in a conditions race at Chantilly, and he could prove better than his opening mark on debut for Ed Bethell's yard. English Oak also warrants respect.

ATR VERDICT: VEGA STORM took a step in the right direction when finishing third at Ayr latest and, on that form, he's a big player in a race of this nature. Dacres Cross couldn't justify favouritism at Catterick but wasn't disgraced in fifth and it wouldn't be a huge surprise if he went well here, while Filly Eilish is another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: ALMEKAREM returned to form with a good second at Salisbury and compensation could be on the cards. That was only the four-year-old's fifth start on turf and a 2lb nudge up in the ratings looks more than workable. Perfect Scoundrel arrives on the back of a C&D victory, although a 6lb rise does demand more of Amanda Perrett's charge. With that in mind, a bigger threat may emerge from Double Red, who scored here at a similar time last year.

ATR VERDICT: Having secured victories over both set of obstacles here in recent months, CAUGHTINYOURTRANCE is fancied to complete a hat-trick. The seven-year-old is only 4lb higher than his C&D triumph in June and the likelihood of underfoot conditions shouldn't pose any issues. Tamarind Bay has taken his form to a new level since switching to chasing in June, although he must put an unseat at Perth behind him, while also proving his stamina. Summer Plate third Breizh River is also of interest.

ATR VERDICT: LITTLE TED could only manage fourth in a C&D handicap last time. This looks more his level nowadays, having gone close in a off a mark of 52 at Leicester in July and Tim Easterby's charge looks worth chancing sporting a hood for the first time. Volenti placed at Redcar recently and could feature again in this grade, while Newcastle third Rogers Dream makes more appeal than Trucial Pearl.

ATR VERDICT: Classy Clarets failed to complete the five-timer when second at Catterick last time, but that was still a creditable effort and he is likely to be thereabouts. Sole Spirit was victorious at Newcastle when last seen and is noted on his return, but THUNDEROUS LOVE gets the nod. Jonathan Portman's mare was beaten a neck into second over this distance at Nottingham and this looks a good opportunity to record a second C&D success.

Top Tip: THUNDEROUS LOVE (11)
Watch out for: CLASSY CLARETS (1)

ATR VERDICT: It's hard to get away from FRENCH AFFAIR, who remained unbeaten since joining the Jennie Candlish yard when successful over 6f at Redcar earlier in the month. He is just 3lb higher now and this extra furlong shouldn't pose him any problems. Silver Trumpet won over C&D two starts ago and if reproducing that level of form, he ought to have a say. Dapper Guest completes the shortlist.

Top Tip: FRENCH AFFAIR (1)

Watch out for: SILVER TRUMPET (3)
